Kayak/Canoe Operating Rules

- The permit holder is responsible for the safety of all those in His/Her craft. Operation of the craft is solely at the operator's own risk.
- Paddlers enter the water at their own risk.
- Permit holders and guests should be strong, experienced swimmers.
- Permit holders must be aware that environmental conditions such as high waves and strong and changeable currents can overwhelm adept paddlers and swimmers. It is important to know the water and weather conditions before going out.
- Float plans are recommended. Be sure to notify someone of your trip plans and check in when you return.
- U.S. Coast Guard approved Personal Flotation Devices (PFD's) are required.
- Carry a spare paddle.
- The Hudson River is a major waterway, paddlers must be aware of power boats and other watercraft.
